

HR NEXT GEN

GRADUATE PROGRAMME

Tomorrow's workplace, today.

Join the 2nd edition of HR Graduate Programme, aimed at developing new professionals with digital skills and a data-driven approach to Human Resources, and become part of the Leonardo Group.

The programme, aimed at recent graduates, preferably in Economics or Management Engineering, offers the possibility of embarking on a career path in Leonardo.

Applications closed.

Programme phases and duration

Participants will be supported by Mentors, Tutors and Buddies, who will guide them throughout the entire path.

At the end of the Programme, the new professionals will join our Human Resources teams in the different Group sites, filling one of the following roles:

- HR Business Partner, at the Foggia, Roma or Varese sites
- Organisational Development, at one of the offices in Rome
- People Analytics and Transformation, at the Rome, Cascina Costa di Samarate (VA) sites
- Site management, at the Nerviano (MI), La Spezia, Montevarchi (AR), Torino or Caselle (TO) sites

Selection requirements

- Master's degree, preferably in Economics or Management Engineering
- Fluent in Italian and English
- Problem solving skills in response to changing contexts and digital trends
- Ability to work in a team
- Familiarity with Microsoft Office suite
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Proactivity, curiosity, aptitude for in-depth study
- Study/work period abroad (preferential requirement)